What's next?

We make every step of the way as easy as can be.

Once you've contacted us to receive our full catalog with pricing, we'll reply with the specifics about your date and our availability.

Most dates book a year or so in advance, so the earlier you reach out, the better the chances are that we'll be open. But, never assume we are not available, as once in a while, for whatever reason, a date remains open. It never hurts to ask!

Once you know you'd like a chance to book with us, ask for a contract to review. Of course, there's no obligation. But doing so is really important as in most cases we'll give you a 3-day soft hold on the date with a right of first refusal.

You'll be able to sign on line, as soon as you're ready. And once you do, and make the first installment payment, the date is yours!

Speaking of payments, we generally make it easy with a 4-payment plan that has the first payment due with the contract signing, the the following payments due at 9, 6, and 2 months before the wedding.

The first payment may be made with any major credit card.

Once we're under contract

We're here to help in any way we can. Need vendor suggestions? We'll be pleased to send high-quality referrals your way.

Around 4 months before your wedding, we'll start the process with you to build a plan for your timeline that'll build our script. This'll be for all the parts of the day that lead to your introduction in to your reception. This timeline will be a key part of a smooth-running day as it'll give you all the information and times you'll need to know for timing of the other key events of the day such as hair, makeup, florals, and the like.

Our years of experience with approaching 1,000 weddings means we know what works well, and there is nothing we want more than that.

If you've added an engagement session, we'll work with you right away to hear your vision and start planning the perfect time and place to make it happen.

All throughout, we promise it'll be fun, and we promise you'll love the decision you made to work with us!

We really look forward to the chance to chat!

Take the first step and contact us today while we may still have your date open!
