Oh, those drone photos!

Our drone camera has one mission. Our quest is ONE shot, something like this.

Whenever we can, we will find a perfect place and set aside the few minutes we need to make a lifetime memory shot like this.
